

About us.

RailAway is the Swiss leisure company with unusual ideas at attractive prices.

RailAway AG aims at promoting the use of public transport for leisure activities and also sustainable tourism. The company's hallmark is good-value leisure, excursion and entertainment offers with rail fare included.

Railaway AG is a subsidiary of SBB (Swiss Federal Railways) and licensed transport companies (LTC). SBB owns 86 percent of the common stock, with the remaining 14 percent divided amongst seven other railway companies* and a shipping company*. The CEO, René Kamer, is one of the founder members – in 2010, together with his 70 employees, he celebrated the company's 10th anniversary of successful trading.

The combined tickets are available from all sales outlets of SBB and the major licensed transport companies or from RailService by calling +41 (0)900 300 300 (CHF 1.19/min).
